Political Science, POL S

200-level POL S courses are not intended for first year students. Students should begin taking 200-level core courses in their second year.

Most 300-level and 400-level courses have specific 200-level (or equivalent) prerequisites. Please check our Department website.

400-level 'topics', 'issues' or 'problems' courses may be taken more than once if the course content is different from year to year or section to section.
