120 The Faculty of Native Studies

Vision
To develop the Faculty of Native Studies at the University of Alberta into the preeminent Native Studies program in Canada.

Mission
To provide a common ground for Native and non-Native students to learn, research, explore and critically examine the historical and contemporary relations that concern Native peoples and communities.

Values
The Faculty of Native Studies values:
- our autonomy as a Faculty within the academy
- interdisciplinarty and multidisciplinary approaches
- the relevance of Native perspectives and Indigenous knowledge
- the contribution of Elders to teaching, research and sense of direction
- our interactions and connections with Native communities
- the promotion of Indigenous languages
- the scholarly standards of the academy for the creation and dissemination of knowledge

History of the Faculty
Establishing an academic unit focusing on Native Studies had been discussed within the University of Alberta since 1972, when such a unit was proposed in a University Senate Committee meeting by representatives of the Indian Association of Alberta.

In 1978, 20 recommendations were made to the University Senate by its task force regarding improved service to Native people and a more coherent involvement in Native Studies. In that year, the University of Alberta GFC established a Standing Committee on Native Studies consisting of University of Alberta faculty members and students and representatives of the Native community at large.

After several years of research, discussion, and consultation with interested individuals and groups from inside and outside the University, the Committee on Native Studies opted for an ambitious program of Native Studies.

The Committee on Native Studies proposed the establishment of a School of Native Studies that would be multidisciplinary in character, instead of a small department that would confine itself to Native history, language and culture. The School would offer a wide range of courses leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree in Native Studies, as well as minor concentrations for students in other Faculties. Faculty members and students would engage in research with special attention to language and land use. Though not parochial in its outlook on Native Studies, the Faculty would pay particular attention to Native peoples—Indian, Inuit, and Métis of the Canadian West and North.

The establishment of a School of Native Studies and a Bachelor of Arts in Native Studies was approved by GFC and the Board of Governors of the University in Spring 1984. In the same year, the Universities Coordinating Council also approved the School and the degree. In 1988, the GFC and the Government of Alberta approved a program of study leading to the Bachelor of Arts in Native Studies.

With the growth in student and faculty numbers and the expansion of teaching and research came the change from School to Faculty of Native Studies in June, 2006.

121 The Professors

121.1 Teaching and Scholarship

Four distinct yet related principles underlie the Faculty’s Program of Studies. The first principle is respect for Indigenous knowledge systems, including languages, cultures, and philosophies. The second principle is the University’s emphasis on research excellence. Third, the Faculty is student-centered, dedicated to enhancing the study experience and helping students develop both knowledge and the analytical and research skills that are suited to address problems of current Native interest. Fourth, the Faculty and all its members are committed to connecting to and collaborating with Native communities. Together, these principles focus on the ability of the Faculty to develop a broad capacity to address issues affecting First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples past, present and future.

The Faculty is broadly interdisciplinary in approach, while at the same time it contributes to the development of Native Studies as an emerging and distinctive discipline. Land, language, self-government, and well-being are among the most vital issues identified by Native communities in the Canadian West and North. These issues and the emphasis on research have shaped course development. At the same time, the Faculty responds to changes in both Native communities and the broader Canadian society.

The Faculty of Native Studies has gained international recognition for exceptional teaching and research activities. We offer students the opportunity to work with award winning professors such as:

- Canada Research Chair
  - B Parlee (Joint appointment with Agriculture, Life and Environmental Sciences)

- Henry Marshall Tory Chair
  - S Carter (Joint appointment with History and Classics)

- McCalla Research Professorship
  - F Tough (2005)

122 Faculty Regulations

122.1 Admission and Transfer

For general University admission and transfer requirements, see §§13 and 14. For specific information about admission to the Faculty of Native Studies, see §15.10.

122.2 Registration and Changes of Registration

Deadlines are strictly observed. See §12. For further information, see §22.1.

(1) Student Responsibility: Students are responsible for the completeness and accuracy of their registration and for ensuring their programs are in accordance with degree specifications. Read the Calendar carefully, and if you are in doubt about the regulations pertaining to your program, please consult the Faculty office.

(2) Failure to “drop” a course: Students who do not formally withdraw from a course but who are absent from the final examination without excuse (see §23.5.3) are given a mark of zero (0) on the final examination. The final grade in the course is then determined by combining the appropriately weighted term grade and the assigned zero in the final examination, the mathematical result rounded to the closest whole number. Students who register in a course but do not attend and do not formally withdraw receive a grade of F. Also refer to §§23.5.3 and 122.6.

(3) Course Load Requirement: Normally, students in the Faculty of Native Studies take a full course load, i.e., ★30, during the Fall/Winter. In exceptional circumstances, and following completion of the first ★30, acceleration to the maximum of ★36 per Fall/Winter may be permitted. In the BA in Native Studies program, students are permitted to take less than a full course load.

122.3 Classification and Selection of Courses

(1) Course Definitions

a. Course Designation: Each course is designated by its computer abbreviation and a number.

b. Units of Course Weight: A unit of course weight indicates the instructional credit assigned to a course and is designated by the ★ symbol after the course number and name. Units of course weight are used to measure the portion of the degree requirements and are also used in calculating a student’s Grade Point Average (GPA).

c. Two-term course: A two-term course is a course with a course weight of ★6 that normally extends over two consecutive University terms.

d. Term Course: A course with a weighting factor of less than six that normally extends over one University term.

e. Senior Courses: Those courses numbered 200–599.

f. Normal Course Load: A normal full academic course load is ★30 during Fall/Winter.

g. Options: Courses taken from other Faculties approved for use by the Faculty in partial fulfillment of the Faculty’s graduation requirements.

h. Courses Extra to the Degree: Courses successfully completed while registered in a program in the Faculty of Native Studies which are not used for degree credit are known as courses extra to degree. Such courses are, however, included in the assessment of academic standing. Students should inform the Faculty which courses they wish declared extra to degree.

(2) Junior English: ★6 of English at the 100-level, or ★3 100-level ENGL and ★3 Writing Studies (WRS). No more than ★6 of junior English, or equivalent, may be taken for credit. Students normally should take English in their first year.

(3) Native Studies Course Requirement: Students in the first two years (i.e., less than ★60 completed) of the BA in NS and of the Combined degrees in Education and in the BSc (ENCS) must take and complete at least one NS course in each Fall and Winter Term. The Faculty will cancel course registration in the add/delete period (see §22.2.9(3)) if there is no registration in a NS course.

(4) Restricted Enrolment Courses: The Faculty of Native Studies strives to accommodate all students wanting to enrol in a given course when it is appropriate to the student’s program. However, classes in some courses must, for academic reasons, be restricted in size. Such courses will be labelled “restricted enrolment” in the timetable. If such a course is found to be oversubscribed, students whose programs do not require that course, or who do not have the prerequisite, may be required to delete it from their registration.

(5) Junior Courses: In all programs, normally no more than ★48 at the 100-level may be taken for degree credit. In no case will this limit be extended to permit a student to make up a matriculation deficiency for degree credit or to include a “free” option at the junior level.

122.4 Academic Record

Students should be aware that their academic record (i.e., transcript) is continuing in nature and that all matters relating to courses, grades, academic standing, probation, etc., appear permanently on the academic record.

122.5 Credit by Special Assessment

See Credit by Special Assessment, §14.2.4, for further important information.

Credit by Special Assessment permits students to receive degree credit in specified courses without actually registering in and taking courses if the student can demonstrate an acceptable mastery of the course content.

Please consult §42.5 Credit by Special Assessment in the Faculty of Arts for specific information regarding the following:

(1) Basis of Application,

(2) Limits,
122.6 Academic Standing

The Faculty’s general academic standing regulations apply to all students and are listed here. Additional promotion and graduation requirements for individual degree programs are noted in the specific program sections.

Academic standing is assessed based on a student’s GPA. (Rules for computing the GPA are listed in §23.4(6)). Students are expected to maintain a 2.0 minimum GPA.

Initial assessment and subsequent reassessment are conducted after Fall/Winter if a minimum of 12 have been completed and after Spring/Summer if a minimum of 12 have been completed. If at the time of either review students have completed less than 12 since the last assessment, the review is deferred and the academic standing assigned at the last review remains in effect until the next review.

Academic standing is assessed at the end of a student’s program even if less than 12 have been taken since the last review.

(1) Application of Academic Standings

a. First-Class Standing: First-class standing in a given year is awarded to any undergraduate student who obtains a GPA of not less than 3.5 while enrolled in a full, normal academic course load in that year. For the sole purposes of determining first-class standing, a full, non-academic course load for the Faculty shall be at least 24 successfully completed during the Fall/Winter.

b. Satisfactory Standing (GPA 2.0 and above): Students with a minimum GPA of 2.0 or better after each academic assessment are in satisfactory standing and may continue their studies in the Faculty of Native Studies.

c. Marginal Standing (GPA 1.7 to 1.9 inclusive): Students receiving the first assessment of marginal standing are permitted to continue under academic warning until the next assignment of academic standing to raise the GPA to 2.0 or higher, if their specific degree requirements and the general requirements of the University of Alberta are also met. If the GPA drops below 2.0 at the next assessment, the student will be required to withdraw for at least one academic year before readmission will be considered. Normally students who are required to withdraw must complete 24 transferable to the University with a GPA of 2.0 at another postsecondary institution or 18 with a minimum GPA of 2.7, after which they may apply for readmission.

d. Unsatisfactory Standing - Required to Withdraw (GPA 1.6 and below): If a student’s average obtained in any review period on a minimum 12 falls below a 1.7, the student will be assigned unsatisfactory standing and will normally be required to withdraw (RTW). An RTW may be appealed unless the student has had conditions placed upon the admission or readmission. Failure to meet the conditions will result in an RTW that is not appealable.

Students who are required to withdraw at the end of Fall/Winter cannot register for the following Spring/Summer. Students who register for the Summer Term of Spring/Summer prior to notification being sent of the requirement to withdraw will have their registration cancelled without penalty. Those students who have already registered in Spring Term of Spring/Summer prior to notification being sent of the requirement to withdraw will be permitted to continue until the end of Spring Term.

Note: Year 1 and 2 students who have achieved a GPA of between 1.3 and 1.6 may be eligible for admission to the Fresh Start program. Students must be recommended by the Faculty for participation in the Fresh Start program. Further detailed information can be found in §14.5 and 23.6.2.

(2) Readmission After a Requirement to Withdraw: A student who is required to withdraw (RTW) from the Faculty of Native Studies and whose appeal has been unsuccessful may be considered for readmission to the Faculty of Native Studies:

a. By taking 24 of transferable credit with a minimum GPA of 2.0 at another postsecondary institution;

b. By remaining out of the university for at least one calendar year following the RTW to withdraw and documenting that academic success is now a reasonable expectation.

Readmission of nonmatriculated applicants after a failure in half, or more than half, of the 24 in first year is considered only after matriculation requirements have been completed.

See §14.2.1(5) for admission, readmission requirements after a requirement to withdraw.

(3) Probation: A student may be admitted or readmitted on Probation, normally with specific conditions which must be met. Final assessment of a probationary student is made at the end of the term (Fall/Winter or Spring/Summer) in which the student completes 24. Failure to meet the conditions of a probation will lead to an academic assessment of required to Withdraw and is not appealable. To clear probation a student must achieve a minimum GPA of 2.0 on a minimum of 24.

122.7 Reexamination

See §23.5.5.

122.8 Graduation

(1) Application: Students wanting to receive a Faculty of Native Studies degree at an upcoming Convocation must apply for graduation on Bear Tracks (https://www.beartracks.ualberta.ca) in accordance with the deadlines specified in §11. Also see §23.7.

122.9 Appeals

Formal and informal grade appeal and academic appeal procedures and regulations are available from the Faculty of Native Studies.

122.10 Academic Offences

Students in the Faculty of Native Studies are expected to live up to the highest level of academic integrity. A breach of the Code of Student Behavior, for example, plagiarism or cheating, may result in sanctions. See §25.

The graduation average is the quotient of (a) the total number of grade points earned by the student in courses credited to the degree, and (b) the total weight of those courses. The major graduation average is the quotient of courses used to satisfy the Native Studies major requirement specifically (see §123.1.3). When a student has attempted, as part of the program, courses at an institution for which the grades are not precisely equivalent to those of the University of Alberta, the degree is awarded at the discretion of the Faculty of Native Studies. Courses with final grades less than C- are not transferable from other postsecondary institutions.

123.2.5 Academic Standing Regulations for the BA (Native Studies)/BEd Combined Degrees

Promotion
(1) To be eligible to continue in the program, students are required to have a grade point average of at least 2.0. The grade point average will be calculated on all courses completed in the program.
(2) Successful completion of an academic year and related promotion will also normally require students to have taken at least 18 units of course weight (Œ18) during each regular academic year. Notes: a course load of less than Œ18 requires the approval of the Faculty of Native Studies and the Faculty of Education.
(3) Students who fail to meet the minimum requirements for promotion as outlined above will be required to withdraw from the BA/BEd Combined Degrees. Such students may transfer to another degree program in the Faculty of Native Studies or the Faculty of Education, provided the entrance requirements for such a program are met.
(4) A student who has been assigned a grade of “W” or “NC” in a Field Experience course is entitled to a second registration in this course. See also §22.1.3 Reregistration in courses. Notwithstanding §22.1.3, if a student receives a “W” or “NC” in the second attempt of a Field Experience course, he/she will be required to withdraw from the Combined Degrees program.

Maintaining Registration
(1) Once admitted to and registered in the BA (Native Studies)/BEd, students must maintain continuing registration from one Fall/Winter to the next Fall/Winter and meet the normal promotion standards until their program is complete.
(2) However, students with special circumstances may apply for permission to “Stop Out” in order to temporarily withdraw without endangering their space in the program. Permission will be granted only to students in good standing and only for a specified period of time.
(3) Students who withdraw or Stop Out from the Program for more than a four-month period without permission will be required to reapply and compete for entrance with other applicants.

Applications with a first undergraduate degree may be admitted to the BA (Native Studies) degree program. All requirements of the BA (Native Studies) degree, as in §123.1.2 are to be met, but the total number of required courses for the After Degree may be reduced by a maximum of Œ60 taken in the first degree. These courses from the first degree may only be from the Faculties of Arts or Science, or from any other Faculty through which students in the Native Studies degree program may take their second area of concentration (e.g., Agricultural, Life and Environmental Sciences). Moreover, these courses from the first degree must be appropriate to satisfy the requirements of the BA (Native Studies) degree. The After Degree program is taken under the direction of the Faculty of Native Studies.

Notes

1. The minor selected for the After Degree program may be the minor from the first degree only if it is an approved minor subject in the Faculty of Native Studies and if no more than 18 at the senior level were taken. 12 of new senior level work must be added if the minor from the first degree is to be retained as the minor in the BA in NS.

2. Students who wish to pursue additional studies in a discipline that cannot be selected as a minor may apply for admission as a Special Student (see §15.2.17) or to a BA Honors Program (see §123.4) if the academic admission requirements for that program are met. Alternatively these courses may be pursued as options in a BA After Degree program to the extent possible within the requirements of the program.

123.4 BA in Native Studies (Honors) (BA NS Hon)

The BA NS Honors degree provides further specialization within the Native Studies program. It enables students to study in greater depth and demands a higher standard of performance than the BA NS program. The Honors program provides excellent preparation for graduate study, especially in Native Studies.

123.4.1 General Program Requirements

(1) Residence Requirement: the Honors degree requires 120 of which
   a. ★66 must be courses in the Faculty of Native Studies or Faculty of Arts,
   b. ★60 must be courses taken at the University of Alberta, and
   c. ★30 must be completed after being admitted to the honors program.

(2) Course Load Requirements

   Students usually complete the Honors program in four consecutive Fall/Winter periods, with ★30 in each Fall/Winter.

   With the prior approval of the Native Studies Honors Advisor, a reduced course load may be taken in extenuating circumstances provided that ★9 is taken in each term. Requests to take less than ★9 per term may be considered by the Faculty’s Honors Committee in exceptional circumstances; however, a course load of less than ★9 in each term will not normally be permitted in the Honors program.

   All degree requirements should be completed within 5 academic years of commencing the second year of the program.

(3) Advising: Honors students are advised to have their programs and registration checked by the Academic Advisor annually and are responsible for the accuracy of their programs.

123.4.2 Course Requirements

The Honors degree requires ★120 comprised of the following groups of courses:

(4) Options (★0—★42)

 No more than ★48 at the 100-level are permitted for credit in the program.

123.4.3 Promotion and Graduation

(1) Promotion Requirements: 3.0 GPA on all courses taken in the Fall/Winter, and 3.3 GPA on courses in the major in the Fall/Winter.

 Students who do not meet the promotion requirements in Honors may transfer to the BA NS program provided they meet the admission requirements for that program. After such transfer, all requirements for the BA NS program must be met. Students who do not meet the promotion requirements of the Honors program, and who do not meet the admission requirements of the BA NS program, will be reviewed under the general Academic Standing regulations of the Faculty (see §122.6).

   c. Graduation with BA NS degree:
      Students who are not recommended for graduation with Honors at the end of their fourth year (i.e., after successfully completing ★120), may apply for the BA NS degree. The BA NS degree will be granted if the program and graduation requirements for that degree have been met. Students deficient in any respect must take additional courses.

124 Certificate in Aboriginal Governance and Partnership

The Certificate in Aboriginal Governance and Partnership is administered by the Faculty of Native Studies and is available to students in undergraduate degree programs across the University, regardless of Faculty or program.

This certificate will provide students with the necessary understanding and skills to effectively lead, work, or partner with Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal businesses, communities, organizations, or governments. The program of study centers on developing knowledge while increasing analytical and applied skills suited to the unique governance issues and opportunities facing Aboriginal peoples and their non-Aboriginal partners today. The curriculum features theory and practice for negotiations and partnership between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal entities, including best practices for successful partnership, leadership, government, management, administration, and business growth for First Nations, Métis and Inuit organizations, and their non-Aboriginal counterparts.

Students wishing to pursue the Certificate in Aboriginal Governance and Partnership must apply through the Faculty of Native Studies. Since the certificate is awarded only upon graduation, students must notify the Faculty of completion of all requirements for the certificate by the application date for graduation (see §111). Normally, the requirements for the certificate can be completed as part of the student’s degree program; however, in some cases, a student may need to take more than the minimum required for his or her degree program in order to qualify for the degree and the certificate.
